CORAM: DR. D.Y. CHANDRACHUD, J.

17th December, 2007.

P.C. :

The learned counsel appearing for the Slum Rehabilitation Authority states that in pursuance of the order of the Division Bench dated 13th November, 2006, the proceedings were remitted to the Additional Collector, (Encroachment) for re-verification of the certified list of eligible slum dwellers contained in Annexure II since the land belongs to the State Government. The learned counsel states that on 29th August, 2007 a fresh reverified Annexure II has been issued by the Additional Collector (Encroachment). The learned counsel stated before the Court that the Petitioner would be informed within a period of two weeks of the outcome of their representations made in pursuance of the order of the Division Bench dated 13th November, 2006. The assurances are accepted. In that view of the matter, it is not necessary to pursue the contempt petition any further, particularly since, in view of the recent judgment of the Full Bench the Petitioners would be at liberty to take recourse to the remedies available in law for raising such grievance as they may have. The Contempt Petition is accordingly disposed of.
